

sure, then wait. There's no reason to pass this resolution. There's ways to amend the Constitution right now, there's two different ways to amend the Constitution. We could petition...if you believe that these constitutional changes need to be made, put together a petition. Go ahead and petition Congress for a constitutional convention, get states to agree with you. Let us know specifically when we're voting on that which constitutional changes you want to make, and then we'll go ahead and discuss those specific constitutional changes. You didn't want to do that here today, you just want to go ahead and get to the final vote on this. But if that's what you want to do, if you want to make those constitutional amendments, then do it, because you have the process open to you to do that right now. You don't need to have a Conference of States and all this other nonsense to go ahead and make those changes. We don't have any of the answers to the incorporation questions, we don't have any of the answers to whether this can be a constitutional...

PRESIDENT ROBAK PRESIDING

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR WITEK: ...convention at any time, we don't have anything. Any answers to whose deciding, who's making any of these decisions. Nebraska will have supposedly one vote. What about these states who've decided not to be involved in it? Will they be bound by whatever goes on at this convention? None of these questions have been answered and yet people on this floor are willing to go ahead and vote for this. It is a new process but it's an unnecessary new process. We already have the processes there. We don't need a third way to amend the Constitution. We don't need The Conference of the States, I believe, and I will be voting for Senator Chambers' indefinite postponement. And no one here can say that they weren't well informed when they voted one or another. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Witek. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President and members of the Legislature, something else I want to get into the record. You've heard all of our speculating here this afternoon, nothing is written in the resolution to answer any of our questions. The only thing you see is that the steering committee will put together bylaws. We all know that whatever we put in the
